

THE OUTCOME

"Both clients were thrilled [to have] a home that represents their lifestyles today," sums up Mondi, who adds that the result is a breathtaking space that is influenced by both the effortlessness of French interiors and the grittiness of a London flat. "Every room has a surprise, but all the while maintaining a calm and cohesive feeling throughout. As we speak, they are looking for a new vacation property for us to design! That is the ultimate compliment." ■
